Blue nose Coast

Bluenose Coast HIGHLIGHTS

Peggy’s Cove – About an hour and a half from Lunenburg just outside the capital city of Halifax. Known as the idyllic fishing village, Peggy’s Cove is one of the most popular stops on a Nova Scotian farm between 100 and 175 years ago. Peggy’s Cove is typical of the many small farms that existed throughout Nova Scotia when the province was still being settled.

Town of Mahone Bay - Situated on a bay of more than 100 islands; it is considered one of the most beautiful towns in Eastern Canada. A treasury of history, culture, 19th century architecture, the main street hosts an assortment of art galleries, shops and dining establishments, truly a tourist’s paradise.

Fishes Museum of the Atlantic - The ultimate waterfront experience in the UNESCO World Heritage Town of Lunenburg. While at the Museum, you will experience life in a fishing community and explore up-close, life at sea. Learn about Rum Running, whaling and August Gales. Have a yarn with old salts; get to know the lobsters and enjoy Bluenose memorabilia. Explore the magnificent aquarium and whale-and-ship vessels.

Town of Lunenburg - On December 6, 1955, Old town Lunenburg was inscribed on the World Heritage List of the UNESCO Convention Concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage. Inscription on this list confirms the exceptional universal value of a cultural or natural site which preserves the benefits of all humanity.

Indian Falls
To commemorate the Municipality of the District of Lunenburg’s 125th anniversary in 2004, Indian Falls was designated as a Municipal Park. The park offers a picnic area, on-site privies, walking trails, rock beach and look off points.

Lunenburg County Winery
The winery is located at Hackmatack Farm, a commercial highbush blueberry farm. Take a pleasant drive into the country. Here you can taste wine, pick berries, picnic, or tour the winery and N.S. craft store.

Petite Riviere Vineyard
French colonists planted the first vine in this area in the early 1600’s. In 1994, Petite Riviere Vineyards revived the tradition. Wines from Canada’s oldest winegrowing region are now available at the winery and at select restaurants in the area. 1300 Italy Cross Rd, Petite Riviere 902-693-3033

Maritime Painted Saltbox
Peter Blais and Tom Alway design and build heritage reproduction furniture and furnishings in the colourful tradition of 19th Century, Nova Scotia. Their unique barn gallery and studio features dramatic acrylic paintings, as well as one of a kind folk art. 265 Petite Riviere Rd, Petite Riviere 902-693-1544

Crescent Beach
Connecting the LaHave Islands to the mainland, this beach stretches out from the shore to Georges Island and provides a popular beach destination for tourists throughout the summer.

LaHave Bakery
From the authentic turn-of-the century shop, choose from a wide variety of breads, rolls, cakes and cookies, made only with traditional ingredients. 3421 Highway 331, LaHave 902-688-2908

Gaff Point
Unique, unspoiled promontory of 124 acres separates the LaHave estuary and Hartling Bay. It consists of marine, terrestrial and wetland ecosystems. Gaff Point offers; steep cliffs, tidal pools where topography becomes gentler; and sand and gravel beaches along the shoreline.

Hirtle’s Beach
A nature enthusiast’s paradise. Here you will find more than three kilometers of white sand, rolling surf, fresh sea air, drumlin cliffs and breathtaking views.

Osprey Ridge Golf Club
A creation of internationally recognized golf course architect Graham Cook. Osprey Ridge is an 18-hole championship course that provides a worthy challenge and a unique and pleasurable golfing experience for players of all skill levels. 492 Harold Whynot Rd, Cookville, 1-888-963-7821

Ovens Natural Park
A privately owned 190 acre pristine reserve of coastal forest. Some of the highlights of the park season are the unique sea caves, tours, gold panning on Cunard’s beach, the miner’s museum and nightly entertainment by the fire. 327 Ovens Rd, Riverport 902-766-4621

Blue Rocks
A small village about a six minute drive from Lunenburg. The little community of Blue Rocks is advertised as “Lunenburg’s answer to Peggy’s Cove”.

Tancook Islands
Big Tancook and Little Tancook are 2 islands located 6 miles off the southern coast of Nova Scotia in Mahone Bay. These two islands are accessible by passenger ferry from the historic yachting community of Chester.
